

School Newsletter

Monday 13th November 2017

Dear Parents

The Staff wish to extend their heartfelt sympathy to Mr O'Doherty whose Mother passed away on Friday night. Our thoughts and prayers are with Mr O'Doherty and his family at this sad time.

Child Protection

Parents are reminded that only members of staff are permitted in the corridors and classrooms during the course of the school day. Children should be dropped off at the door and allowed to make their own way to their classroom or the hall on wet days. This procedure is in place to ensure the safety of all our pupils.

Shoebox Appeal

Filled shoeboxes should be returned by Tuesday 14th November. Thank you for your support.

Anti-Bullying Week

In support of Anti-Bullying Week, our children will be participating in various classroom based activities over the next few days which will reinforce the strategies for self-protection and procedures for dealing with any incidents that were discussed in detail with the children during last Friday's assembly. There is a summary of our anti-bullying policy on the reverse of this newsletter and a full copy of the policy can be accessed on the school website.

Scholastic Book Fair

The Book Fair is in school this week until Thursday and will be open from 2.00pm-2.30pm & 3.00pm-3.30pm each day.

Flu Vaccine

The flu vaccine will be administered in school on 23rd & 24th November. Please return your child's letter regarding the flu vaccine by tomorrow Tuesday 14th November, even if you do not wish your child to have it.

After School Clubs

This week is the last of the after school clubs until after Christmas. This does not include Fun Club or Irish Dancing as these continue throughout the year.
